

In This Issue: Gas Well Covers & Seals for Pneumatic Pumps

As many of you are aware, we have been experiencing technical issues with our website, email, and toll-free phone numbers since July 13th. We hope to have these issues resolved shortly. In the meantime, you can reach us at our local phone number, 763-424-2613 and our back-up email address info@epgco.net. Thank you!

Product Highlight

Gas Well Covers & Seals

EPG's dual extraction, gas tight well covers and well seals pair perfectly with Viridian America's VP Series Pneumatic Pumps. Our covers and seals provide the necessary ports and fittings to accommodate typical air-inlet/air-exhaust with liquid discharge configurations.

These covers and seals also offer easy access for inspection and sampling and can be equipped with optional bracketed air filters and regulators. Designs for both flange and flexible-coupling installations are available.

In addition, they work equally well with many other popular brands of pneumatic pumps.

Custom Solutions

Here at EPG, customization is more the rule than the exception. For every similarity a leachate extraction or gas well de-watering application shares, you can expect just as many differences that need to be considered.

If your project has unique challenges or special requirements please don't hesitate to present them to us. We've seen it all and we're eager to help find solutions.
